

HERALD AM. 3/12/61

HOW ABOUT THAT? Four-year-old Michael Downes Jr., was a smiling youngster after "hooking" this trout at the Northeastern Sports Show at the War Memorial yesterday. Looking on is dad, Michael. The show closes today.

KINDERGARTENER'S FIRST DAY. Newcomers to the world of scholars at Edward Smith School explore the possibilities of an exerciser while they get acquainted with each other. CHARLES ANDREWS

Mrs. Ellen Nesbitt, Auxiliary president, is shown pinning the pin for over 10,000 hours of volunteer time on the lapel of Mrs. Blanche Ramseyer. Also, Mrs. Catherine Priest received the same recognition pin. Mrs. Nita Pierson, director of Volunteers, is looking on.

From Crouse Irving Memorial
"Clocktower" - Aunt Catherine cited for all her volunteer work to the hospital
←