ST. PATRICK'S HIGH SCHOOL

Margaret Barrett

Margaret was one of the pioneers of St. Patrick's and school won't be the same without her. Her sense of humor and infectious laughter made her one of the most popular of the girls. Politically, she stands for Senior Privileges and better food. She is suspected of having a publicity agent for, the second time she ever played golf, her picture was published in most of the society pages of the country. Her best friends says that Margaret's ambition is to flip pancakes in Child's window. This would indeed be a feather in St. Patrick's Cap, so here's hoping she is successful.

Trite Sayings of Children

Majestic—Wellhowshouldiknow!

Slim—You huhd me, ah didn stuttuh!

Cecilia—Oh, you meanie!

Donald—No, do you?

Margaret—Well, for crying in the beer!

I, Margaret Barrett, bequeath a tattered manuscript, which upon careful examination, will prove to be an English translation of Vergil (trot) to Helen Kelleher, the Cicero class, who I trust will treasure it as befits so venerable an heirloom of the Barrett family.
