Citizens' Foundation Honors John Downes

The Citizens Foundation yesterday honored John Downes of 709 Salt Springs Rd. on his 10th anniversary as director of the Foundation.

The Citizens Foundation is a community organization which conducts programs designed to increase understanding of American freedoms together with the responsibilities of citizens in a free society.

Downes was presented with a gift by the past presidents of the foundation for his work in inaugurating programs which were designed to fulfill the objectives of the organization.

Downes is a graduate of St. Bonaventure University and received a master's degree in education at Syracuse University. Prior to joining the Citizens Foundation he spent five years teaching at the Mohawk Valley Technical Institute in Utica.

He is a member of Our Lady of Solace Church and is married to the former Margaret Barrett. They have eight children.
