

1/22/90

Mrs. Hughes,

I really enjoyed listening to Joe read. He is an excellent reader and I know you are very proud of him. I thought I was listening to a fifth grader instead of a first grader. It is exciting and wonderful to know a first grader can read like that.

Thanks for sharing his reading ability with me.

(a letter from the principal of Joe Beck's school to Joe's teacher)

H. Branson

