Miss Barrett And Mr. Kane Wed Monday

Miss Mary Elizabeth Barrett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Barrett of Bellevue avenue, became the bride of Emmett Patrick Kane of 1040 Westcott street, in the Church of the Assumption at 10 a. m. Monday. Rev. Gannon Ryan officiated. Decorations included poinsettias, Christmas trees and greens, with candles on the altar.

Miss Margaret C. Barrett, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Helen Smith of Detroit, Mich., was bridesmaid. Carl Murray was best man and ushers were Frederick Whiteside, Burnett Haylor, Clinton Burnett and Charles Litty.

The bride wore a satin gown, in off white color with a yoke of antique rosepoint lace, which had been presented to her by Mrs. Hamilton S. White. The sleeves were long and pointed over the hands and the skirt terminated in a train. Her long veil fell from a cap of the same lace as the yoke and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Barrett wore a gown of emerald green chiffon with a long full skirt and square neckline. The dress had a gold belt and she wore a Juliet cap of gold. Her flowers were Talisman roses. Miss Smith was in a similar gown of dusk blue chiffon with gold belt and cap and carried yellow roses. Mrs. Barrett wore dubonnet crepe with black accessories and gardenias.

A breakfast for the families followed in parlor A of the Onondaga, with a reception for friends later in the Hiawatha room. Wedding flowers formed the decorations. The couple left for a week's trip and will make their home at 1040 Westcott street after February 1. For a traveling outfit, the bride wore a black crepe ensemble with a blue satin blouse and short black jacket. Her accessories were black.
