TEN MEMBERS of the Citizens Foundation flew to Washington, D.C. yesterday for a tour of governmental departments.

In their two-day stay the Syracuseans will visit the Department of State, Department of Defense, Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Budget, Department of Justice, and the White House.

The tour was arranged by Congressman R. Walter Riehlman and Robert G. Soule. Tomorrow the foundation members will have as luncheon guests in the Mayflower Hotel Congressman Riehlman and representatives of the departments they have visited.

Purpose of the program is to give members first hand knowledge of government functioning. Those making the trip are Howard J. Berkel, Henry C. Fadden, Albert O. Halstead, John J. Kinane, James H. Mullaley, Royal L. O'Day, Robert G. Soule, Robert H. Steele, Forbes S. Tuttle and John F. Downes, Citizens Foundation director.
