ST. PATRICK SCHOOL PUBLISHES ANNUAL

Year Book of Miami Beach Senior Class Is Called Patrician

The first annual of St. Patrick school, Miami Beach, called The Patrician, has been published by the senior class. The staff was composed of Dorothy Steadman, editor; Donald McNeil, assistant editor; Dorothy Majewski and Margaret Barrett, pictorial editors, and Cecilia Farrey, business manager. The book is dedicated to Sister Leo Clare.

The seniors who published The Patrician are Margaret Barrett, Cecelia Farrey, Dorothy Majewski, Dorothy Steadman, C. R. Clark, Jr., Clarence Floyd, Joe McCahill, Donald G. McNeil and John Schaefer.

The school also will have a graduating class from junior high school, consisting of Evelyn Dulbs, Betty Farrier, Kathleen Kilmartin, Mary McNeil, Julianne Marqua, Ann Roberts, Robert McEnroe, Kenney O'Farrell and Robert Reilly.

School athletics have been under supervision of Byron Wheeler and Miss Marian Wood. Captains of teams have been Joe McCahill and Helen Kellerher, basketball, and Jack Stiles, baseball. Stars in other athletics have been Winfield Day, golf; Cecelia Farrey, Helen Kellerher, Patty Kilmartin and Donald McNeil, tennis, and Molly Hoban, diving and swimming.

Dr. Roche to Address St. Patrick's P-T. A.

DR. C. F. ROCHE will be the principal speaker at the general monthly meeting of the St. Patrick's Parent-Teachers Association to be held Monday at 3 o'clock in the library of the school. The program being arranged by Mrs. Joseph Dulbs and Mrs. Bert J. Reilly consists of a short talk by Mrs. Roberts, representative of the Southern Daries; solo by Mrs. G. W. Cannon; piano selection, Lena Schwarzkoff and a tap dance and song by Molly Hoban, a pupil of St. Patrick's School.

Margaret Barrett was voted Queen of May for the May Day Procession that was held at the church, after the 10:30 mass on Sunday. Mary Lorreta Enite and Charlyne May were guards of honor and Cecilia Farrey and Dorothy Majewski, choir leaders.

"The Patrician" is the name of the first annual put out by the senior class of 1931 of St. Patrick's High School and was dedicated to Sister Leo Claire, superior of the school. Dorothy Steadman was the editor, assisted by Donald McNeil. Dorothy Majewski and Margaret Barrett, pictorial editors and Cecilia Farrey, the business manager.
