

Dorothy + Bob's daughters

December 23, 1992 • CI

PARTY GIRL — All that commotion up on Second Street last Wednesday wasn't just another wild party. It was more special than that. Friends and relatives of Kay Raymond gathered at her home to celebrate Kay's 88th birthday. Taking part in the joyous celebration were Kay's granddaughters, six-month-old Megan and three-year-old Anna. Also there were members of Kay's long-standing Thursday morning coffee group. A good time was had by all.

1994

BLUE RIDGE BUSINESS JOURNAL

Margaret Downes

Three of UNCA's faculty members have been named to serve as part-time assistant vice chancellors for academic affairs, and a fourth faculty member will expand his responsibilities as an assistant vice chancellor for academic affairs. Each will serve in a particular project area.

Margaret Downes, Literature and Language Department professor and chair, will coordinate faculty development activities. Alan Hantz, Mass Communication Department chair and professor, will coordinate curriculum and planning. Merritt Moseley, Literature and Language professor, will coordinate public service and special projects. Dwight Mullen, Political Science Department associate professor, will continue to coordinate cultural diversity activities as well as develop an African Studies Program.