

Miss Barrett to Be Bride Tomorrow of Emmett P. Kane

Miss Mary Elizabeth Barrett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Barrett of 928 Bellevue avenue, will become the bride of Emmett Patrick Kane of 1040 Westcott street, in the Church of the Assumption tomorrow. Rev. Gannon Ryan will officiate and the bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Margaret C. Barrett as maid of honor. A classmate at Marygrove college, Detroit, Miss Helen Smith of Detroit, will be bridesmaid.

Carl Murray will attend Mr. Kane as best man and ushers will be Charles Litty, Clinton Burnett, Frederick Whiteside and Burnett Haylor. A wedding breakfast for the families at the Onondaga will be followed by a reception, for friends, also at the hotel. After February 1, Mr. Kane and his bride will reside at 1040 Westcott street.

A number of parties have been given in honor of the bride-to-be. Hostesses have included Miss May P. Crandon, the bridge club of which the bride is a member, Mrs. Richard P. Barrett, Mrs. Jesse E. Falker, Miss Gertrude B. Silverman, Miss Lucille A. Hopkins, Miss Mary C. Smith, Miss Margaret and Miss Frances O'Toole, Miss Catherine E. and Miss Geraldine E. Punte.

Miss Catherine Luther and Carl Murray entertained at a buffet supper party Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Barrett and Mr. Kane at Miss Luther's home, 320 Cordon avenue.

A wedding cake topped with a small bride and bridegroom centered the serving table. Guests included Miss Margaret Barrett, Miss Jane Burns, Miss Lucille Crawley, Miss Lucy Hopking, Miss Mary Margaret O'Toole, Miss Frances O'Toole, John Downes, John Butler, Edward Sheehan, James Carpenter, Charles Curran and Benjamin Ackley.

Michael Romeo

Miss Margaret C. Barrett

Miss Barrett will be the maid of honor at the wedding of her sister, Miss Mary Elizabeth Barrett, to Emmett Patrick Kane, in the Church of Assumption tomorrow.

The paper didn't usually
← feature the bridesmaid. →

They did so because

MBD was so pretty.

TAKEN A DAY OR TWO AFTER MY GRAD-UATION
FROM S.B.U.

