John Priest Takes Bride in Long Island

Miss Phyllis Clavin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clavin, St. Albans, L. I., became the bride of John G. Priest, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Priest, 1018 Velasco rd., in St. Joachim and Ste. Ann Church in Queens Village, L. I. The Rev. R. B. Reichgott performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of antique satin with a V neckline edged with seed pearls and lace yoke and sleeves. The yoke extended into a lace panel down the front of the gown. The full skirt ended in a cathedral train. A matching satin and lace headpiece, trimmed with seed pearls held her fingertip illusion veil and she carried a prayer book with two white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Robert E. Frietsche of Hicksville, L. I., was matron of honor for her sister and wore an iridescent green taffeta gown with matching jacket. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Alice Gallagher of Elizabeth, N. J. Her gown was similar in dusty pink and she carried pink roses.

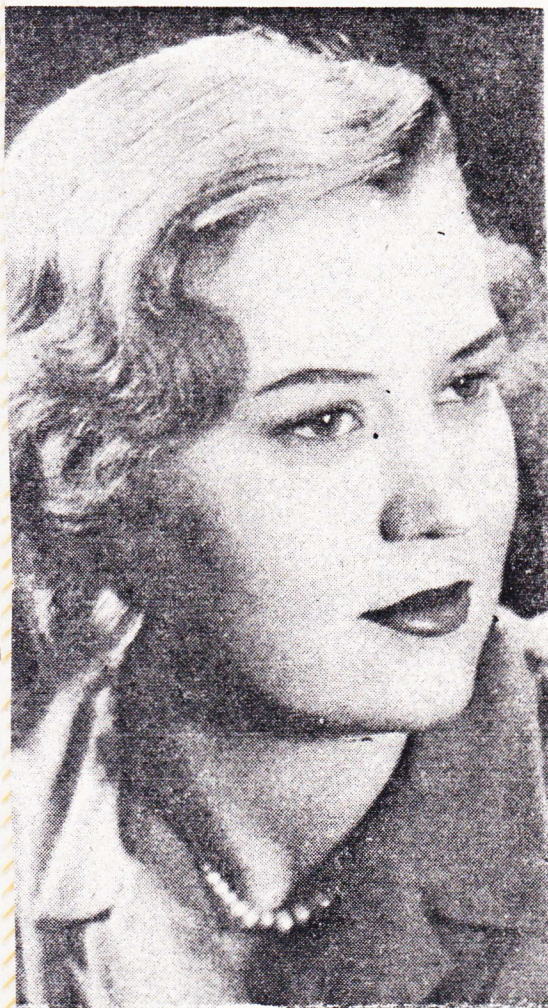

Best man was Donald Priest, the bridegroom's brother, and ushers were Tom W. Clavin, San Juan, P. R., and Edward Flavin. Edward Priest, the bridegroom's brother, was junior usher.

A reception was held in the Music Lounge, Farmingdale, L. I., following which the couple left by plane for Sea Island, Ga. They will make their home in Binghamton.

Mrs. Priest is a graduate of Seton Hill College, Greensburg, Pa. Her husband was graduated from St. Bonaventure College and is employed by Trailmobile Co., in Binghamton.
