

714 East Brighton Ave.
Syracuse, N.Y. 13205
(315) 469-5388

Rev. Robert P. Barrett

Daniel Patrick Moynihan
New York

United States Senate
Washington, D. C.
September 29, 2000

Dear Father John:

What a wonderful gift and even more wonderful surprise. We have been reading Born for India with such joy. Not least for the memories of our time together in Delhi.

With great affection,

Daniel P. Moynihan

MURRAY-WEIGEL HALL

Jesuit Community

15 East Fordham Road
Bronx, N. Y. 10458

Dear Ambassador Pat,

What a wonderful blessing were the years we spent in serving God and fellowman in India. May we all be born again with Love for all men by God's Love in Eternity....

Gratefully yours in Christ

John Barrett S.J.

*Reg. Mike and Family
Yes, Jack lived double 93 yrs: 186 to be sure
He and Margo must be enjoying all above! Keep both in Prayer and Love
Bob*

OBITUARY

Father John Barrett SJ

NEW YORK — Father John Barrett, SJ, died June 7 at the Jesuit Retirement Home on the Fordham University campus. He was 93 years old.

Originally from Tip Hill in Syracuse, Father Barrett was a graduate of Christian Brothers Academy. He was ordained into the Society of Jesus in 1942 at the Jesuit College in the Himalayas.

He was a scholar of Hinduism who spent almost half his life in India. Father Barrett held dual citizenship in India and the United States.

Father Barrett was the editor of the Sanjivan Press, a Catholic newspaper in India for 40 years. He founded and was director of the New Delhi School of Journalism, which was eventually named for him. He taught journalism courses at Le Moyne College when he was not serving in India.

Upon his return to the U.S., Father Barrett served as spiritual director of the Bishop Bordman Retirement Home in Brooklyn.

Father Barrett is survived by his brother, Father Robert Barrett, who resides at Pius X Hall in Syracuse. He is also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Father John Barrett, SJ